After he retired he was very bored and decided he wanted to try something else – He decided he wanted to be a mechanic. He signed up for a course and after the final test was graded he received a grade of 150%!

He asked how it was possible to receiver a score greater than 100%

“Well,” said the evaluator “We gave you 50% for engine disassembly. It was perfect! And we gave you 50% for engine assembly. It was perfect.”

"That's only 100%." said the Doctor. "Why the other 50%?"

"You're the only one to do the entire disassembly and assembly through the exhaust pipe!!!"
