

UNITED STATES SUBMARINE VETERANS, CHARLESTON BASE 2010 SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS'

The United States Submarine Veterans Inc, Charleston Base recognized four outstanding students during the June meeting with scholarships in support of furthering their academic goals. The Scholarship Program is named in honor of Admiral James B. Osborn. Admiral Osborn was selected to command our Navy's first ballistic missile launching submarine, the USS GEORGE WASHINGTON. Two years later, in July 1960, this submarine launched the first POLARIS missile from below the ocean surface off Cape Canaveral.

These students were awarded the scholarships based not only on a strong academic record but demonstrated participation in extra curricular activities that benefit their school and/or community. The scholarships were awarded to:

$2,000 to Maisie Wilson, granddaughter of TCMC(SS), USN, RET Barry Wilson who served on the USS Thornback (SS 418); USS Theodore Roosevelt (SSBN 600); USS John C. Calhoun (SSBN 630) and the James K. Polk (SSBN 645). Maisie graduated from Wilson Academy Homeschool in Florida and will attend Florida State University. Maisie's award was received by her father Barry Wilson Jr.

$500.00 to Elisabeth Kilroy, Stepdaughter of Russ Moser who served on USS Casmir Pulaski (SSBN 633); USS Sam Rayburn (SSBN 635) and the USS Bergall (SSN 667). Elisabeth will be attending Wake Forest University.

$500.00 to Autumn Oakley, Stepdaughter of Eric Ramsey who served on the USS Spadefish (SSN 668) and USS Parche (SSN 683). Autumn graduated from Berkeley High School and will attend the College of Charleston.

$500.00 to Ashleigh Van Metre, daughter of Christopher Van Metre who served on the USS L. Mendel Rivers (SSN 686); USS Omaha (SSN 692); USS Rhode Island (SSBN 740) and the USS Hartford (SSN 768). Ashleigh graduated from Bishop England High School and is accepted to Notre Dame University, University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill, Wofford, Clemson and the College of Charleston.
