

Admiral James B. Osborn Scholarship Fund Awards $2,500 to Four Grandchildren Of Charleston Base Members

Hard work always pays off - and in these cases - it literally did. Four grandchildren of Charleston Base members were presented with scholarship checks in a ceremony held before the June monthly meeting.

Christopher Fassulitois, grandson of member Roger Gibson, received a $1000 scholarship presented to him by his grandfather.

Kevin Scharf, grandson of member George Scharf, received a $500 scholarship presented to him by his grandfather.

Trent Trump, grandson of member Terry Trump, although not present for the ceremony, received a $500 scholarship presented to him by his grandfather (we sent the check with Terry to Ohio). Trent will attend Grand Canyon University in Phoenix AZ.

Emily Stanovitch, granddaughter of member Richard Walsh, received a $500 scholarship presented to her by her grandfather.

All the recipients and their families. Congratulations and well done.
